

Breakout 2

How to ensure economic inclusion of the informal sector?

Ideas

Governments borrowing from external agencies

Pressure international organizations to cancel or postpone external debts from different countries

Government intervention is now necessary

The tourism industry cannot longer solve problems by itself. The governments need to tackle those issues directly

Relying on tax revenues

Take action to ensure: Potential travelers know needed conditions are in place for health and safety

For the travelers to know they will travel there safely and, if something happens in the country, they will get access to health care

Ensure that customers have what they need

Appeal to Charity organizations and campaigns to collect money

Travel agencies can lead a collection activity, reaching out to previous clients who have already had some experience and come in contact with the country

Appeal to big companies, who have a leverage position and the ability to steer the economic decisions
