ROUNDTABLE
Human Rights in Tourism

Assessing human rights risks and impacts in the tourism value chain
Practical online tools for the tourism industry (free of charge)

Get Started Tool

This interactive online tool especially helps small or medium-sized outbound tour operators and tourism companies to get an overview and identify their business-related human rights risks.
Based on a simple value chain approach, it offers various examples of real cases and pragmatic guidance on how to define priority risks and suitable measures:
www.humanrights-in-tourism.net/get-started

Human Rights Impact Assessment Tool

Going one step further, this tool guides tour operators step-by-step through the process to systematically assess potential and actual human rights-related impacts of their operations in destinations.

The tool

- follows an internationally acknowledged methodology
- builds capacity and internal understanding how to prepare and conduct a destination specific human rights impact assessment (HRIA)
- helps to identify specific follow-up measures and an action plan based on the impacts identified in the HRIA.
- offers various guidance documents and templates for download and
- has a free login area to use it in a company-specific version:

www.humanrights-in-tourism.net/human-rights-impact-assessment